- Arrival in Cornello dei Tasso at 10:15.
- Walk along the Medieval Mercatorum street as far as San Giovanni Bianco.
- Optional entrance to the house of Harlequin, the most famous carnival mask in the world, whose birthplace is in Bergamo and not in Venice as it is mistakenly believed.
- Organised lunch included
- Bus transfer to San Pellegrino at 14:00.
- Guided tour in San Pellegrino, a typical Art Nouveau town; between the end of the 19th and the beginning of the 20th century. It became the centre of Bergamo's social life and at the same time the favourite holiday destination for the rich international middle class: for this reason it was called the "pearl of Val Brembana", for its Art Nouveau buildings, the Grand Hotel, the Casino, the thermal springs and the most famous water and soft drink factory in the world.
- Free time in San Pellegrino.
- Return to Bergamo (departure at 15:15 and arrival close to Piazzale Sant'Agostino at 16:00).
