

STELLA AGOSTINI

Education and training

- Degree in Architecture (landscape planning), Polytechnic of Milan (1989)
- Architect professional qualification, Polytechnic of Milan (1990)
- PhD in Agricultural Engineering (Rural Heritage, Re-use and Restoration), Faculty of Agriculture, University of Milan (1996)

Professional experiences

- Supply Professor, Course on Farm Buildings and Rural Land, Spatial Planning Laboratory, Polytechnic of Milan.
- Teaching fellow, Course on Farm Buildings II (The design)
- Senior researcher at Agriculture Faculty of University of Milan (2001)
- Expert Fellow in Spatial fellow at Architecture Faculty of Polytechnic of Milan (1989-1994)
- Expert Fellow in Farm Buildings at Agriculture Faculty of University of Milan (1992-1996)
- Professional activities in Spatial Planning (1989-1992)

Other activities

- Member of the Forum UNESCO University and Heritage
- Coordinator for the University of Milan of “Rural vernacular heritage research “in the framework of the FUUH (ForumUNESCOUniversity&Heritage)
- Member of Centro Interdipartimentale di Ricerca e Servizi per i Beni Culturali, University of Milan
- Author of over 80 scientific and technical papers.

Research fields

Farm buildings and rural land, focusing on:

*Design, recovery and re-use

*Rural vernacular heritage

*Landscape and spatial planning

*Biocultural heritage

Contact

Stella.agostini@unimi.it

Web page: www.unimi.it